KITCHEN ASSISTANT / HOST

INTRODUCTION TO THE ROLE

We will provide you with a full week of training, after which you will be responsible of looking after the guests in the chalets and assisting in our central kitchen. In the main kitchen you will be doing preparation for the chef which as per list provided.

You will not be assigned to kitchen or a chalet in particular for the whole season, your work rota will be provided at the weekly team meeting at the beginning of each holiday week to organise when and in which chalet you will be working.

You will also be responsible for the maintenance and general cleanliness of the chalet. Please note, a lot of cleaning will be required either in the kitchen or chalet.

There will be one or two busy days, per week, during guest change over days. Your working week, throughout the ski season, will vary but on average it will work out at 40 hours.

Certain weeks, during the ski season, will be busier than others:

- General training, as well as chalet setup, will take place over the first 2 weeks
- Christmas week and New Year's week will be very busy
- January will be quieter, and your ski time will increase
- February is the busiest month. The skills you have learned, in the previous months, will benefit you most during this time
- March and April will be quieter
- Chalet close down and cleanup will take place over the final week
